Travellers Tales...

Four Seasons Explorer by Anna Baccanello, Sales Director

I have a wonderful addiction! I am addicted to the Four Seasons Explorer, a luxury Catamaran that takes up to 22 passengers on spectacular cruises through various Atolls in the Maldives. In the last ten years I have been a guest on the Explorer no less than five times and am avidly planning a return in 2022. What makes it so special? Well, first of all even though it's a ship, it's still a Four Seasons so the service, staff, food and excursions are all of the highest quality as you would expect from a floating Four Seasons Resort. From the moment you step on board to the sound of the welcome drums you are cocooned in luxury and every member of the crew works tirelessly to make your cruise an unforgettable experience. For divers and non-divers this is the best way to explore the Maldives as the cruises go from Four Seasons Resort Maldives at Kuda Huraa through the North Male Atoll to Four Seasons Resort Maldives at Landaa Giraavaru in the Baa Atoll (3 nights) and then back via the Ari Atolls with their resident whale sharks up through south Male Atoll back to Kuda Huraa (4 nights). Personally, now I opt for the entire 7-night cruise with one day on land at Four Seasons Resort Maldives at Landaa Giraavaru while the ship restocks. This allows you time as well to enjoy the magnificent facilities of the resort and swim with the Mantas in Hanifaru Bay. For me though the most unforgettable feature of the Explorer is her incredible crew. I have no idea how the Chefs produce such wonderful food from such a small galley and the excursions to local and deserted islands are beautifully handled and executed.

Four Seasons Resort Maldives at Kuda Huraa

The snorkelling and diving is amazing and pristine – you rarely, if ever, see another vessel. The Beach Party on each leg is a highlight as is the Captain's night. Unlike most resorts where all Robinson Crusoe type excursions to deserted islands and villages, motorised water sports, diving and snorkel trips are extra everything on board the Explorer is included in the cost, even the sea-plane flights. The only extras are alcoholic beverages and spa treatments but on the Captain's and Beach Party nights drinks are also offered to the guests. It's phenomenal value for money, a great way to experience the incredible beauty of the Maldives and the warmth and wonderful smiles of the crew remain with you long after the suntan has disappeared. I hate disembarking but console myself with the thought that I will be back.

For me though the most unforgettable feature of the Explorer is her incredible crew.

Inspired by Tenerife's multicultural past, The Ritz-Carlton, Abama is an oceanfront oasis stretching along Spain's sunniest shoreline. Wrapped in an inviting terracotta hue, this extensive resort offers a wealth of amenities, including Michelin-starred dining and no less than seven separate pools to escape the midday heat.

The Ritz-Carlton, Abama, Tenerife

With an enviable location, your days can be spent doing as much or as little as you desire. Within striking distance to award-winning golf courses and world-class tennis facilities, active guests can also work out on state-of-the-art equipment in the well-appointed fitness centre. If you are hoping for a more relaxing break, Abama's exclusive beach benefits from the most hours of sunshine anywhere on the island. Plus, after topping up your tan, you can spoil yourself to brand new treatments in the luxurious spa designed by world-renowned London brand, Sanctuary.

With eight bars and restaurants, each with its own splendid setting, keen foodies will be thrilled with the culinary offerings at Abama. Boasting not one but two Michelin star options, there are plenty of opportunities to celebrate over a special meal. Holder of one star is Kabuki which serves up its tasting menu of Japanese inspired dishes with breathtaking views over the ocean. Meanwhile, with its two Michelin stars, M.B delivers a bold menu of Basque classics served with a contemporary twist! After an unforgettable dinner, slip away to the romantic courtyard of the Lobby Bar. With palm trees swaying gently overhead and the soothing sounds of the live pianist, you won't find a more perfect backdrop for a romantic nightcap!

After idyllic evenings guests can retire to their expansive suites, complete with views overlooking crashing Atlantic waves or the delicately manicured gardens. With warm and welcoming interiors and some of the most generous rooms in Tenerife, guests will be delighted with every category of accommodation. Marking an extra special milestone? The VIP suites are a fabulous setting for a long-overdue celebration, with the choice between private rooftop pools or a bubbling jacuzzi to set the scene for a memorable evening unwinding under the stars.
